Get Real for Christ!

A man was looking for a job and he noticed that there was an opening at the local zoo. He inquired about the job and discovered that the zoo had a very unusual position that they wanted to fill. Apparently their gorilla had died, and until they could get a new one, they needed someone to dress up in a gorilla suit and act like a gorilla for a few days. He was to just sit, eat, and sleep. His identity would be kept a secret. Thanks to a fine gorilla suit, no one would be any the wiser. The zoo offered good pay for this job, so the man decided to do it. He tried on the suit and sure enough, he looked just like a gorilla. They led him to the cage; he took a position at the back of the cage and pretended to sleep.

But after a while, he got tired of sitting, so he walked around a bit, jumped up and down and tried a few gorilla noises. The people who were watching him seemed to really like that. When he would jump around, they would clap and cheer. So he jumped around some more and tried climbing a tree. That seemed to really get the crowd excited. Playing to the crowd, he grabbed a vine and swung from one side of the cage to the other. The people loved it! Wow, this is great, he thought. He swung higher and the crowd grew bigger. He continued to swing on the vine, getting higher and higher — and then all of a sudden, the vine broke! He swung up and out of the cage, landing in the lion's cage that was next door. He panicked. There was a huge lion not twenty feet away, and it looked very hungry. So the man in the gorilla suit started jumping up and down, screaming and yelling, "Help, help! Get me out of here! I'm not really a gorilla! I'm a man in a gorilla suit! Help!"

The lion quickly pounced on the man, held him down and said, "Will you SHUT UP! You're going to get both of us fired!"

The truth always has a way of surfacing. I would be wise to think twice before I decide to pretend. Some people pretend to be Christians when they are not. Many people pretend not to be Christians when they really are Christians. A few people act like Christians and are Christians.

Ask yourself, "Am I pretending?"

If "Yes", it's time to get real and get right with God and others.

Blessings

Information Please!

If you (or your group) are organising a Church event and wish it to be publicised in the magazine, please give details to Claire Stewart, Editor. After your group has held an event, it would be great if you could nominate someone to provide a short report to be published in the magazine.

The magazine aims to provide information about what God is doing in our midst and to encourage one another as we serve Him in Lossiemouth Baptist Church. God is doing great things so let's share them so we all enjoy the blessing.

It would also be helpful if ministry leaders could notify dates of holidays etc.

Tel: 812557 or magazine@lossiebaptist.org

Volunteers Required!

There is always a need for extra help in all areas of the Children's and Youth Work in the Church. If you feel that the Lord is leading you into ministry within this area, please contact Kate Wakeford, Youth and Children's Co-ordinator (Tel: 813963), who will be happy to discuss this with you.

Holiday Club 2013

Once again the Children's Holiday Club was a great success and the children who attended daily were thrilled by many activities provided by the enthusiastic team of volunteers. Spurred on by the success of last year, we again wrote our own material based on the Toy Story Theme.

Each day there was a drama performed by our budding actors/actresses (teenagers) with appearances from Woody, Buzz, Jessie, Barbie & Ken, Bo Peep and not forgetting Mr & Mrs Potato Head! The children enjoyed meeting them each day to see what they had been up to!

Our own local Lossie grannies (Babbs n Nora) visited each day to share the Bible stories. There were crafts, messy games and lots of fun action songs as well.

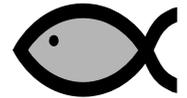

On Sunday 28 July at 11 am the congregation enjoyed the special Holiday Club Service when the team ably and enthusiastically presented an overview of the week, along with the children. The church was decorated with the amazing artwork that had been done for the Club.

We are grateful to all who contributed in any way to the success of the Holiday club and thank especially the team, led by Kate Wakeford and Gordon Stewart, who worked so hard to ensure its smooth running. However, it was evident that they had lots of fun at the same time.

God indeed blessed this week. The children's enjoyment was clear for all to see and they learned a great deal about God's love for them. The young people too learned much about themselves, about working with others and about God's faithfulness. Already the team is looking forward to next year.

Our new session begins on Monday 2 September with a Supper Night starting at 6.30 pm. We extend a warm welcome to all ladies in the Fellowship to join with us.

Charity Shop

Items for the Charity Shop - running from 9 – 20 September to raise money for the Extension Fund, should be put in the old kitchen at the Church clearly marked for the Charity Shop. For any bigger items that need transporting to the Church, please contact Chris Gault who will arrange collection.

If you are able to help in the shop, please put your name and the times you can work on the sheet on the notice board or speak to Ann Regan (813612) or Georganne Blackwood (812773). We also will need volunteers on Saturday 7 September to help with transporting goods from the Church to the Shop and setting up the shop. Please help if you are able.

Items for GLIA

Many, many thanks for all the items of clothes and toiletries etc that have been donated over the last couple of months to GLIA and thanks to our wonderful packing team for their hard work in sorting and packing everything. Everything collected to date will either be going on a lorry in September or in our car as we drive out at the beginning of September.

Although we would appreciate still receiving toiletries, vitamins etc through the box in the Crush Hall, we would ask that NO clothes be donated until November due to the refurbishment work going on in the Church in October as we will not be able to sort and pack during the work. We would suggest these are either given to the Charity Shop or stored at home in the meantime. Thank you again for all your donations towards the work at the Centre of Hope in Dorohoi.

Tech Input...

Tech

11 August: Back in the spring, I introduced you to the online Bible ‘You Version’. During July this free version of Scripture online reached 100 Million downloads, just in time for its fifth anniversary – yes, people have downloaded 100,000,000 copies of the Bible in just under five years. Let’s pray for the impact this is having on our world.

We also recently launched the web portal for listening to sermons online. If you haven’t looked at the page yet it is fairly easy. Go into your internet browser (IE Explorer / Chrome / Safari / Opera) and go to the page ‘www.Lossiemouthbc.blogspot.com’ (without the speech marks). Each sermon has a section with a link at the end of it. If you click the link, it should just start playing. Once it is playing if you click on the black screen with the right mouse button, you should get an option to ‘save as’ and the file will download onto your machine as an MP3 file....enjoy! Sometimes the command is ‘save video as’ – not sure why! The podcasts are just the audio of the prayer and sermon – If you want the full video, ask for a DVD. To date we have had 401 views.

Speaking of Video... We are using more and more video in the regular services. It might be interesting to try and create a few of our own. To that end, the tech team are looking for individuals who have either experience with, or a desire to learn video production. I am hoping that when we have a special service on, or an event like a holiday club, we can put together some of our own footage for playback in the service, or on the big TV in the coffee room between services. If this is something you are interested in, give me a call and we can talk it through.

We are approaching the time when the services are going to be moved out of the sanctuary while it is refurbished. Church is going on the move! This is a great opportunity for learning as we move AV kit each week and set up from scratch, that which is normally buried in the floor and walls. We currently have a couple of vacancies in the team, so if anyone is interested in taking part in the church production team – please come and speak with me. This is a really good time to join us, just as things are getting interesting. In the months to come, we will be introducing some new processes and new equipment. No prior knowledge is necessary, just a desire to serve and a willingness to learn. We will do all the training and sit alongside you as you learn the craft of being a techy. It will be good to be in on this from the beginning – call me for an application form! “Take a walk on the dark side”

As part of our on-going drive to improve our processes and the quality of what we do, I am trying to improve the forward preparation and planning of services – Less last minute requests of “can you just play this?” If you are taking part in a service please contact me (Tel:831363) before the day of the service. I am going to start compiling the service schedules on Friday. Can we please try to have material ready by end of play Thursday.? Videos, presentations, details of dramas... etc. If you email details to me (hirsute@btopenworld.com) I will forward to the right person – thank you.

Finally, I know I have asked this before, but it would be good to get feedback from the deaf loop users. Question: What signals do you want through the loop – vocals (obviously) anything else – music?

Neil & the team...

Also why not join the Lossiemouth Baptist Church Facebook page and keep in touch with others in the Fellowship? Members who wish to access the Members’ section of the website should email the Secretary who will make the necessary arrangements. (secretary@lossiebaptist.org)

Update from Alex Saulys (July)

I hope you are enjoying this lovely weather as much as I am!! It feels like forever since I sent my last newsletter and indeed so much has progressed. During the end of June and start of July I enjoyed a great time at home in Lossiemouth where I got the opportunity to catch up with many of my friends and family there.

I have now been back in the Midlands a week but it feels longer! This past week has been all about meetings. On Monday I attended a leaving party for two of the Youth-180 team who it will be sad to see leave but are going on to exciting and fun things.

Tuesday seen me in London at the college I will be attending come September - Oasis College. It was our orientation day and I got to meet two of my course-mates as well as look at what we will be doing.

Wednesday seen me meeting up with a couple from the church I will be attending and serving in as my alternative placement for college. The couple will be my church mentors and we discussed the kind of things I will be involved in such as their Friday night youth, Sunday School and some mentoring.

Thursday I had a meeting in school with the Head of Humanities for Nicholas Chamberlain who is my School Link. With her we were discussing what kind of things I would be doing on my two days in school. While these will be confirmed when I start in September, it looks like I will be trying to support the sixth form (5th and 6th year in Scotland) through mentoring and generally providing a supportive ear. With the lower school I will be providing mentoring as needed and supporting the R.E department as well as possibly running some before after school clubs and lunch time clubs.

And today? I received an email which has changed my plans for the rest of my summer! It currently looks like a few weeks of August I will be joining the Soul Survivor Team! So that means in two weeks' time I will be going on a camp with the church I was at for the previous year before heading off to Soul Survivor All before moving into my accommodation just in time to start my new course in September!

Looks to be a busy but great summer and an exciting year to follow! I ask you to join me in praising God for the exciting plans that are unfolding for the Summer and next year, as well as the great time I had at home!

God's provision continues to be amazing!

(The Fellowship continues to remember Alex in prayer and will also provide further financial support for him for the next year as he continues his studies.)

Rachel & Tim Eagle - BMS Missionary Partners Some snippets from their July Prayer Letter

Having finished their time at IMC in Birmingham, the family spent time in Buckie visiting their home church before setting off to Beira, Mozambique to begin their work there.

"Nights here are different than what we expected, the sounds of grasshoppers, frogs and insects are not common noises in the hustle and bustle of the city. Instead nightly renditions of Rihanna, Gang-Nam Style and One Direction blare out from nightclub style speakers between the different bars and houses surrounding us.

The four weeks since arriving have flashed by in a daze of luggage retrieval from customs, shopping for household essentials, learning to drive Mozambique style and language learning. To our absolute joy the house we are in already had many of the things we needed, thanks to the BMS Team already here.

The Guidebooks of Mozambique talk of the friendliness of the people and it is so very true, from the friendly taxi drivers waiting outside the airport to people at church and local neighbours. People regularly stop to chat despite us not understanding them most of the time.

We are attending a Baptist Church called 2nd Baptist. The church service is a wonderful experience. We expected a culture shock and there is still time for that to come but for us life here fits with what we enjoyed back in Buckie. We love to eat local foods, live outdoors and feel incredibly settled already.

The biggest problem we face is language. Never a day goes past where we don't have an opportunity to have a conversation with a local person, which at the moment is limited. Thankfully the language institute is brilliant. Our teacher is kind and patient. Everyday we can say a few more things and so everyday we can engage that little bit more with the people around us and that is probably the biggest thing we are here to do. Mozambique has welcomed us so well and as we settle into our new weekly structure we thank God continuously for that welcome, for those who prepared so well for our coming and, we look forward in anticipation to what God has prepared for us to do."

Who and What is Hope UK?

Children and young people face many challenges in our social environment that is rapidly changing. Many feel that they cannot afford to go to university and are struggling to find work after they leave school. Drugs and alcohol are an ever present temptation to those who feel a sense of hopelessness about their future.

Hope UK is a Christian charity that works throughout the UK to prevent drug and alcohol related harm to children and young people by training volunteers to become drug educators in their own community. Our educators are trained with a 120 hour course that is accredited with the Open College network because we want them to be competent and confident to talk to young people in a variety of settings, including schools. They are also trained to help parents and youth workers to gain an awareness of drug and alcohol issues.

Training – Margaret Bruce from Buckie Baptist Church completed this course with me and it was not an easy task! The exams were challenging, bearing in mind that we are both 60 years old, and although Hope UK provided all the materials we had to complete the work in our own time. We also attended three weekend training courses and completed a session in front of our peers lasting an hour. We had work assessment portfolios to complete for audit by assessors and the education establishment. Margaret and I were very fortunate that we were trained at Hopeman, where Jo Pickford, Hope UK Co-ordinator (another Baptist) lives and for the first time the trainers came to Scotland. We had busy and tiring weekends but we always started and ended the day in prayer. This work is Christian led and one must be a Christian, non-drinker and non-smoker to qualify for training and also have the necessary references. I am grateful to the pastor and leadership for their prayers and encouragement.

In April we were presented with our certificates at the Hope UK Annual Weekend Conference at the All Nations Bible College. We met many people from all walks of life and were encouraged by them as well as having a fun training weekend of games etc. The young people who attended were a joy but Margaret and I declined their invitation of a video shoot of us all dancing together as we cannot rap!

It may be of interest to you that Sarah, Hope UK's Chief Executive Officer's grandfather came from Fraserburgh and her maiden name is Duthie so it will come as no surprise that she had a great time with George Duthie at the Hopeman chemists as he actually stayed in the next street to her grandfather in Fraserburgh when he was a young man.

If by leading drug awareness sessions, we should prevent one person from using drugs and saving their family from going through the horrible experience of living with a loved one who has a drug dependency, then it will be worth all the time and effort.

If you are interested in becoming a voluntary drug educator, please contact Hope UK's representative in north east Scotland, Jo Pickford at 07907502693 or email her at j.pickford@hopeuk.org.
